TWO BRIDGES ON STATE ROAD--See Page 2.

A SHOOTING AFFRAY DRINKING AND CRAPS LEAD TO STONES AND GUNS

Both Parties Are in Jail Awaiting Trial on Charges
Preferred.

A shooting affray took place on Tuesday evening of last week, which may end in both participants remaining for some time where they cannot indulge in whiskey and firearms.

Arthur G. Clay and Samuel Woodyard, both colored were on Washington street about half past five o'clock of that day. As the story goes they had been drinking and playing craps and Clay got a half dollar which Woodyard claimed. The former started on a run for his home at end of Washington street with Woodyard after him. The latter picked up one or more stones and threw after Clay, when latter turned and fired once or twice with a revolver. One of these shots struck Woodyard on the left side of the face. He immediately started for another stone while Clay went into his home and picked up a shot gun. Mrs. Clay tried to interfere and another party who saw the affray warned Woodyard to run or he would be shot. He started to run up Washington street toward town and Clay banged away with the gun. Woodyard says several shots struck him in the back.

Both Woodyard and Clay were arrested the same evening. Woodyard made an information against Arthur G. Clay charging an assault and battery with intent to maim, before Justice of the Peace Hill. Mrs. Clara Clay made an information charging Woodyard with an aggravated assault and battery in throwing stones and both Mrs. Clay and Arthur Clay charged Woodyard with surety of peace, the former with a threat to knock her head off and latter with a threat to kill, before Justice of the Peace Quinby.

After hearing on last Wednesday both Woodyard and Clay were committed to jail for trial at November court.

Dr. J. R. Dickson located the ball in face of Woodyard and extracted the same, being of 22 calibre. Woodyard came from Emmitsburg and has been working at Hotel Gettysburg. Clay was in the regular army for awhile and has been causing his parents much trouble by his drinking habits.

Canning Factory.

The Gettysburg Canning Factory operated by the D. E. Winebrenner Co. is probably the busiest factory in the county, though all of them are being operated to the full capacity of plants. The sweet corn crop has been simply enormous and while in other years it has averaged 1 1/2 to 2 tons to the acre this year it is running three tons to the acre.

A large supply of cans was laid in at the beginning of the season but as the size of crop was an unknown item then, it has turned out that there has been a shortage in cans at all the plants. By Sept. 6, the factory in this place had canned 250,000 cans of corn. Several days last week the supply each day brought here was in neighborhood of 60 tons and 20,000 cans turned out in a day's time. There were farmers from near Littlestown with big wagons of corn, they had been unable to deliver at Littlestown by reason of congested condition of supply at that plant.

Wm. H. Wiernman was sent out last week to find out how much corn was back of what was put out for the factory here and found 225 acres had not been touched. It will take three to four weeks to can the supply in sight.

A Strange Accident.

Wm. Reed, colored, met with one of the strangest accidents on Sunday evening. He was seated at his front door and a trolley car came down Washington street. As it passed in front of his place there was an explosion on the track and immediately afterwards he was struck in the face by a bullet which entered aside of his left eye and lodged in the corner of eye. When bullet was extracted it was discovered to be of 32 caliber and the first surmise was that some one recklessly fired off a revolver, until a small boy on street admitted that he had been playing with cartridge and placed it on the trolley track. Mr. Reed has his eye bandaged and has been assured that the eye ball was not touched and the sight will not be affected.

Letter to Geo. E. Stock Gettysburg, Pa.

Dear Sir: It costs two or three times as much to put paint on as to buy it. A gallon of poor paint costs as much as a gallon of good, for the work; and a gallon of poor don't go half as far. Poor paint lasts half or a third or a quarter as long as good; and protects wood and iron a half or a third or a quarter as well as good.

Do you buy good paint or poor? You don't know any poor? Why, the market is full of it!

All Devoe agents have a state chemist's certificate which tells just what's in Devoe.

Go by the name: the one safe name: Devoe lead-and-zinc.

Yours truly

County Bridges Building.

J. A. Collins is at work on the walls for the two iron bridges recently contracted for by County Commissioners, the one at Rhodes Mill over Middle Creek in Freedom township and the other over Rock Creek on road leading from Carlisle road to old Shippensburg road about two miles north of town. County Commissioners Waybright, Bell and Sharetts have recently visited both places to note progress of work. It is expected to have iron work in place and bridges opened to travel before winter.

Winning His Way.

Earl Eicholtz, son of Mrs. Laura B. Eicholtz, was made glad last week by receiving a letter from Peekskill Military Academy, where he has been attending several years, informing him that he had been appointed a trumpeter in the school, carrying a salary of $400. This appointment is very pleasing to his relatives and friends here, following as it does the winning of a scholarship on merit by Earl during last year's course.

Car Load Buyers Enthusiastic.

Weaver organs and Weaver pianos are sent in car-load shipments to Caroleen, N. C., to Michael Bros. & Co. After receiving a shipment lately they wrote: "Some fine musicians were present at our opening and they were highly pleased with the Weaver piano especially. We have always had a high opinion of your organs, and if possible, are even better pleased with your pianos."

L. T. L. Meeting.

The Loyal Temperance Legion of Arendtsville met at the home of Miss Lula Miller, Wednesday evening Sept. 6, 1905.

The meeting was opened with songs entitled "For Native Land," "Hark the Temperance Bells," and the "Temperance Ship."

He was a bright, intelligent man, well read and in course of time developed his business into a knife industry. He made a name for his knife and soon he had orders for all the knives his limited plant could supply. A number of Gettysburg people recognized the merit of the man and the knife he was manufacturing and to give the business the facilities needed, the Gettysburg Cutlery Company was formed and building erected. This Co. afterward combined with Wilkenson Shear Co. of Reading, Mr. Hartzell taking an important position in the company and seeing the business of manufacturing knives greatly developed. Failing health compelled him to resign his position before moving to Fairfield. Funeral was held on last Thursday, Rev. C. L. Ritter conducted services. He leaves a widow and two sons, Earl and Harry, a sister Mrs. Thomas J. Winebrenner of this place and a brother, Wm. Hartzell, of Mt. Holly.

Mrs. Jessie Lohr, wife of Rev. Luther L. Lohr of Williamsport, Pa. died suddenly on last Saturday afternoon from a malady that baffled the attending physicians. She had been enjoying her usual good health when two months ago she became ill with some throat trouble which seemed to extend over body. She grew better and as late as Saturday morning a letter said she was greatly improved. The relapse came that afternoon and she passed away in the Williamsport hospital. Mrs. Lohr was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Zinn of this place and was one of two children born here during battle days, having been born on July 4, 1863, when Confederates were in full retreat. Mr. and Mrs. Parker were spending their vacation at Reading and while there he contracted pneumonia from which he died. He was engaged in the optical business, doing a large business on Columbia Ave., Philadelphia. His remains were removed to Philadelphia and buried there.

The Tribunal of Nations.

From the imperial days of ancient Rome to those of costly and curious radium is a far cry, and yet, in their "Tribunal of Nations," the Frank A. Robbins Co. all New Great Feature Shows seem to have covered the intervening centuries after a fashion calculated to most brilliantly and impressively appeal to the public eye. The feature named comprises an heroic historical pageant in which the most famous epochs are designated by representatives of their greatest rulers and their courts and martial staffs, disposed in accurately and royally robed tableaux on gorgeous floats, drawn by splendidly caparisoned blue-ribbon thoroughbreds. Napoleon, the victor in a hundred battles, as he appeared on the memorable field of Austerlitz; Caesar, the immortal Roman conqueror and historian; Frederick the Great, whose masterly genius laid the foundation of the present German Empire, and whose statue, presented by Emperor William to America, was recently unveiled on the esplanade of the newly finished war college at Washington; Wilhelmina, the beloved young Queen of the Netherlands; the Kings of Italy, Spain and Sweden; the Emperor of Austria, and of others. Here is an eye feast of impressive individuality and a stimulant to historical inquiry of great benefit to the young. This and the many other feature novelties and animal and avian attractions of the exhibition named will be with us on Saturday, Sept. 23.

The Renewal a Strain

Vacation is over. Again the school bell rings at morning and noon, again with tens of thousands the hardest kind of work has begun, the renewal of which is a mental and physical strain to all except the most rugged. The little girl that a few days ago had roses in her cheeks, and the little boy whose lips were then so red you would have insisted that they had been "kissed by strawberries," have already lost something of appearance of health. Now is a time when many children should be given a tonic, which may avert much serious trouble, and we know of no other so highly to be recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla, which strengthens the nerves, perfects digestion and assimilation, and aids mental development by building up the whole system.

Troubles of Doc Hudson.

Dr. E. D. Hudson has been having troubles of his own in Hagerstown. On the charge of keeping a disorderly house he was fined $100. Last week brought another charge of selling liquor to minor and he gave bail in $300 for court. Doc in disgust said last week "What you fellows ought to do in mercy and loving kindness to men coming here to bring money and business, is to catch him at your city gates, take his money away and hang him high. That will save the long agony of building up a business and then being smashed like a fly at last."

Civic Club Communication.

The Civic Club was informed that a dead cat and a muskrat were found in two of the keep-the-town-clean receptacles. A member saw a decayed watermelon in one on the N. E. corner of Baltimore and High streets. People forget that only waste papers, banana skins and the like which would be thrown on the streets and on the pavements are to be put in the receptacles. The lids and bottoms of many of the receptacles are broken off. It is impossible for us to keep them in repair if so carelessly handled. We trust this notice is sufficient. Please remember that the borough gathers dry sweepings provided they are swept in piles in front of every house once a week. No garbage and yard refuse will be gathered up.

TWO BRIDGES ON STATE ROAD

STONE BRIDGE IS ONE OF THE FINEST PIECES OF MASONRY.

It Stands Today as Good as When Built and Without Repair.

This week the COMPILER presents on first page what is believed to be not only a taking picture but also as interesting a bit of county scenery as can be found. Two Bridges over the Big Conowago on the State road or Harrisburg and Gettysburg road.

In the building of county bridges in Adams county there has been at least three distinct periods, the stone bridge, the wooden bridge and the iron bridge. The masonry of the stone bridge unquestionably presents the most picturesque bridge. There are many stone bridges in the county but the one at Two Bridges is entitled to the distinction of representing the end of the stone bridge building period, as it was the last stone bridge to be erected by the county.

The spot where it stands is attractive. The creek is split into two channels at the point leaving an island in stream. Over the wider channel toward the north is the stone bridge and over the smaller channel to the south is the wooden one. The channel at the wooden one is a branch of the Conowago and is in Straban township, while the stone bridge crosses the channel dividing Straban and Tyrone townships. On the latter side is the well known farm of Dr. Wm. R. Stewart, having been in Stewart family for the big end of a century when sold several years ago.

The stone bridge is considered by many well acquainted with it to be one of the best pieces of masonry in county and that bridge is as good today as when built.

It is a singular fact that while the county commissioners have been repairing the stone bridges, at one the piers beginning to go to pieces, at another the arches or the wing walls, or the side walls and top, the stone bridge at Two Bridges has never been repaired since built if the wooden covers on side walls are excepted. High water, frost and ice seem to have done it no harm.

This bridge was built in 1823 by David Diehl at a cost to county of $1950. The sum was paid in two payments, $450 in 1823 and $1500 in 1824. The stone for the bridge are said to have been quarried a short distance up the creek.

A tradition is connected with bridge, that either the contractor or mason sub-contractor was financially damaged by contract, that he built the bridge so well, of the best materials, giving the county full value under the contract, that he was at a big loss, for those days, when bridge was finished. The bridge stands as a monument to honest first-class masonry.

The wooden bridge is a more modern affair as representing the second period in bridge building and is the second one that has stood at that spot.

At the August court, 1848, Geo. W. McClellan, George Shryock, Samuel Miller, Alexander D. Buehler and George Little, viewers for a proposed bridge over that branch of Conowago Creek where the same crosses State road south of the bridge now standing over the main stream, reported that the bridge was indispensably necessary. This report was approved by grand jury and court the same year and county commissioners directed to construct bridge.

The commissioners contracted with John F. Felty to build the wooden bridge on Jan. 22, 1850 for $700. He went to work on it at once. April 18, 1850, on petition of Mr. Felty, Henry Chritzman, George Swope, David Ziegler, Samuel R. Russell, John Jenkins and Leonard Stough were appointed to inspect bridge and reported to August court that it was finished according to contract, receiving from Mr. Felty $1 a piece for their services.

The bridge erected by John F. Felty was an uncovered wooden one with low frame side. What happened to it has not been learned but within ten years was either carried away by high waters or damaged so that a new bridge had to be built.

In 1859 the county commissioners contracted with John M. Pittenturf for the building of the present wooden covered bridge, to be seen in picture, for $247. The wing walls and approaches were evidently not included and the price must have only covered the lumber and work. Nov. 21, 1859, the court appointed John Diehl, Cornelius Lott and David C. Brinkerhoff to inspect the bridge built by Mr. Pittenturf and their report was approved and contract price paid.

As viewers, inspectors and builders of Two Bridges, the names of a number of the best citizens of the county are linked.

Plummer Refuses to Answer Niles.

Henry C. Niles, the leading Republican lawyer at York Bar and representing the "Lincoln Party," on September 2 addressed J. Lee Plummer, the Gang's State Treasurer nominee, a letter, which latter has refused to answer. Among other things Mr. Niles said the following:

"You were a member of the Legislature of 1902.

"We are informed that during that session you voted for all of what were known as the Machine legislation and grab bills, and as chairman of the Elections Committee were active in unseating the two Democratic members, Blumie, of Cameron, and Ferry, of Luzerne, against all evidence, and at the close of the session, in order that Republican contestants, without right, might get the salaries and perquisites of office.

"It was said that this proceeding was so rankly partisan that it was opposed and condemned even by such stalwarts as McLaughlin and Cooper.

"You were a member of the last House of Representatives, and are credited with 'going along' with the Penrose-Durham Machine.

"You ranged yourself against the endorsement of President Roosevelt's plans to relieve the people from the crying injustice of railroad discriminations and rebates.

"You were opposed to any action for personal registration, in preparation for which the Constitution had been amended, and which was urged by the Governor and the best elements of the State.

"You were antagonistic to the effort to introduce into our civil service the merit system of appointment and promotion, that has done so much for the purification of politics in the Federal service and in other States, and to which the Republican party of the nation is irrevocably committed.

"You voted for the villainous Puhl bill, designed to cripple societies for the prevention of vice; for the infamous Erhart bills, for the protection of the white slave traders, and for the Philadelphia Ripper bills, the only possible purpose of which could be to rivet upon that city the chains of an organization of public plunderers.

"We desire to be entirely just to you. If these statements are incorrect, and you have been misrepresented by rumor and newspaper reports; or if the Assembly's minutes, that we have been informed sometimes recorded you as present and voting when you were really miles away, have been fraudulently kept in regard to all of your actions by wicked persons bent on your disgrace, we will be happy to have you inform us, and we will gladly assist you in efforts to counteract the effect of so gross a libel."

Plummer was not satisfied to remain silent, but has refused to make answer.

PEACE IN THE FAR EAST

Japan Victor on Land and Sea With Moral Victory of Peace.

The treaty of peace at Portsmouth, between Japan and Russia was signed last Tuesday afternoon Sept. 5, and at its conclusion the Plenipotentiaries toasted President Roosevelt, who brought about the peace.

The victory of war belongs to Japan as well as the victory of peace. The war has changed the map of the Far East, and has recast the commercial and political relations of the whole Oriental world. From a military point of view it was an epoch making war. It included the three greatest land battles and the greatest sea battle ever fought. It has taught that there is no such thing as an impregnable fortress, and that the best defenses can be taken by direct assault. The greatest result is the raising of Japan to the position of a first class power and the fall of Russia as the greatest of the world powers.

The cause of the war was Russia's policy of playing fast and loose with her promises to evacuate Manchuria and her refusal to recognize Japan's paramount interest in Korea and her own moves to acquire ice-free ports.

The war began Feb. 5, 1904 and ended Aug. 29, 1905—571 days. The peace was agreed to on latter date, the treaty signed Sept. 5.

The result of the war is that Japan has re-acquired control of Korea, Port Arthur, the Liaoyang Peninsula, Sakhalin, and China is supreme in Manchuria with "open doors" to the trade of the world. Russia will not get on the Pacific coast an ice free port. Japan has won every point which led up to the war, as well as the superb example of a moral victory without indemnity.

The land battles of Liaoyang, Port Arthur, Mukden and the sea battles up to that of The Sea of Japan proved the superiority of the Japanese on land and sea. The battle of Mukden overshadowed all previous battles of which the world has definite information from Marathon to Sedan, with almost 800,000 men engaged therein. It gives Oyama rank as strategist of the first order. In sea fighting Toga stands without a rival.

Russia sent to the front 750,000 men, Japan 700,000 men. Russia losses in killed, permanently disabled and invalided home have been computed at 375,000, Japan 250,000. Japan lost but one officer of rank, Russia 11.

One of the most wonderful demonstrations of the war is the hospital service of the Japanese, in which it was shown that the high percentage of sickness during past wars was unnecessary as they have been cut down from 70 and 80 per cent to less than 5 per cent. Every country will have to go to Japan to learn to reorganize army hospital service.

Oldest West Point Graduate,

General Herman Haupt, of Washington, is the oldest living graduate of West Point Military Academy. President Jackson appointed him a cadet when he was only 15 years old. He graduated when he was 18 and so probably can claim the additional distinction of having graduated younger than any other cadet. General Haupt graduated at West Point in 1835. Our older people will recollect him as Principal of Oak Ridge Academy, now the Blocher mansion, and whilst conducting Academy he was Professor of Civil Engineering and Architecture in Pennsylvania College 1837-38 and Assistant Professor of Mathematics 1845-47. His wife was a daughter of the venerable Father Keller, pastor of St. James Lutheran church of this place.

BEWITCHED

[Original.] One bright summer morning more than two hundred years ago, a ship from England anchored off shore at a settlement in Massachusetts. To the people of the place the arrival of anything or any person was a subject of excitement and they all went down to see what the vessel brought them. To their great joy besides stores there had come a number of people to cast their fortunes with them. The watchers on shore stood gaping under their broad brimmed puritan hats while a ship's boat unloaded the emigrants, among them a young girl, who from the moment her foot touched the land made herself as much at home as if she had been born there. She had not been landed five minutes before her shoes and stockings were off and she was wading in the shallows, splashing the water, laughing and otherwise disporting herself. The grim faces on the shore formed a singular contrast with the capering maiden.

"Tell me," said Hezekiah Stonehedge to the captain of the ship, "who is that madcap who is disgracing herself by showing her bare ankles to our young men?"

"She calls herself Abigail Rogers."

"To which of the families does she belong?"

"To none of them."

"God help us!" exclaimed Hezekiah Stonehedge, throwing up his hands in pious horror.

At that moment Abigail Rogers' back was turned to the shore while she waded out toward a place where a small bit of sand rose above the surface. As the water deepened she raised her skirts accordingly. Then it grew more shallow, and she stood on the little island, clapping her hands in great glee. She splashed her white feet in the water, hunted for shells—indeed found more to do in the narrow compass than many would have found on all the coast. Though all eyes from the shore were fixed upon her, she paid no attention to her observers and when she had tired started landward. But while she had been sporting the tide had risen, and after she had advanced till the water became so deep that she could raise her skirts no further she stopped and cast her eyes to the shore as if looking for help. Sweeping the line of scowling faces, she at last fixed on Hugh Saltonstall, a stalwart young fellow, who had been looking on with the others. The moment he received the maiden's glance he strode into the water and carried her in his arms to the shore.

That was quite sufficient to stamp her as a witch. Hezekiah Stonehedge took the captain of the ship into his house and wrote down all the information he had to impart concerning Abigail Rogers. No one knew how she had got aboard his vessel, for she had not appeared till the morning after the ship had sailed. She had bewitched the sailors, who when she fixed her eyes on them could not be made to perform their duties properly. This Stonehedge considered all the proof needed.

When the young man set the girl down on the sand every person who saw what they considered his enthrallment turned and went up toward the settlement, fleeing lest they should themselves come under the spell. Abigail wondered what had sent them away in such a hurry. Young Hugh endeavored to make her aware of the terrible danger overhanging her.

"Why," he asked, "did you put yourself in such jeopardy?"

"The good God made me happy," she replied, "and I must be happy."

"How did you come to sail for these shores?"

"My uncle sent me abroad in charge of a sailor, who hid me."

"Why did he do that?"

"I don't know."

"Come with me to the house in which I live. There are women there, and I'll see if I can persuade them to protect you."

The young man believed that before the day was spent she would be jailed and as soon as tried burned at the stake. He walked beside her to a cabin. Hezekiah Stonehedge and others stood afar watching him. On reaching the cabin every woman but one fled. She, good motherly soul, nothing affrighted as the others, took the girl to her heart and gave her refreshment. Just before dark Hezekiah Stonehedge came, followed by two others to assist him, to demand the body of the witch. Hugh Saltonstall met him at the door.

"The witch is not here," said the young man. "An hour ago we put her by the chimney to rest. Suddenly there was a gust of wind, and she vanished. Rushing out of the cabin, I glanced at the sky. She was not there; but, looking below, I saw her going down to the water with a sieve she had taken from the chimney place. When she reached the verge she launched the sieve, got into it and sailed away."

"She has bewitched you," said Stonehedge, not knowing whether the young man lied or told the truth, and he searched the place. He found nothing, for Abigail was hidden in the clock.

That night Saltonstall took the girl in his boat to the ship and prevailed on the captain to take her back to England. Her protector went with her and upon investigation uncovered a plot to get rid of her that another might secure a fortune she had inherited. Her uncle had bribed a sailor to take her aboard the ship, and after her departure she had been personated at home by a girl of her own age.

Saltonstall succeeded in restoring the property to the girl he had befriended and punishing the man who had sought to defraud her. The young man had been, in modern parlance, bewitched.

Mrs. Almira A. Jackson, of East Front St., Traverse City, Mich., says: "For twenty years I was doctoring for kidney and liver trouble, but without benefit. Just before I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I was almost paralyzed. I could hardly stand on my feet because of the numbness and lack of circulation. Had a knife been thrust into my kidneys the pain could not have been more intense. My sleep was disturbed by visions of distorted figures. The kidney secretions were annoyingly irregular, and I was tortured with thirst and always bloated. I used seven boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. The bloating subsided until I weighed 100 pounds less, could sleep like a child and was relieved of the pain and the irregularity of the kidney action. My circulation is good and I feel better in every way."

My body and face were covered with sores. One day it would seem to be better, and then break out again with the most terrible pain and itching. I have been sick several times, but never in my life did I experience such awful suffering as with this eczema. I had made up my mind that death was near at hand, and I longed for that time when I would be at rest. I had tried many different doctors and medicines without success, and my mother brought me the Cuticura Remedies, insisting that I try them. I began to feel better after the first bath with Cuticura Soap, and one application of Cuticura Ointment. I continued with the Soap and Ointment, and have taken four bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and consider myself well. $854.40 ON SEWER BONDS

WATER CO. CONTRACT FOR PLUGS RENEWED AT $400.

First Report of Sewer Work Done—Sewer Under Railroad, Etc.

President of Town Council Plank called September meeting of council to order on last Tuesday evening with a two-thirds present and as the remaining third came straggling in, it was suggested by the early members that the late ones ought to be fined.

Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

The first business was the reading of communications and a petition was heard from the owners of lots fronting on Hanover street, setting out that they have already incurred expense of draining their houses and cellars into the alley in rear of the lots, which alley is the natural course of the drainage of said lots, and asking that the new borough sewer may be laid in the said alley instead of in Hanover street.

Petition was signed by C. W. Troxel, C. S. Speese, R. C. Shriver, C. B. Dougherty, Harry E. Troxel, Mrs. Ellen Bupp, R. E. Radisill, S. Russell, Hollebaugh, Levi J. Diehl, St. John McClean, H. J. Hartman and A. J. Hartman.

President Plank stated that it was the intention of Sewer Committee to run sewer in alley if the council did not object. The engineer said it could be done as easily as first planned. It was thought it would be more useful in alley and would not deprive any one of convenient sewerage, as another line goes down the York pike and it was ordered to be laid in the alley.

A letter signed by H. S. Trostle, President of the Board of Health, was presented by Dr. Henry Stewart saying that "there is needed for the use of the Board of Health to meet the bills incurred in stamping out the recent epidemic, the sum of $200. This does not include the contract with Dr. O'Neal whose bill has not yet been presented." A councilman asked for the itemized statement requested by council. Dr. Stewart said he did not propose to make two statements, that in the regular course of business such an itemized statement would be submitted and the letter indicated what money was for. Then remarks of all kinds were interjected into the air.

Council had only asked information how much for the guards, how much for support of patients, how much for this and that; one always got an itemized statement when they bought things in a store; if no statement will be given guess we will have to pay bill anyhow. Finally a request was made for statement why $200 was asked now instead of $100 turned down at last meeting and explanation was made that all the bills were now in except physician's and it would take that much to square them. Motion carried to appropriate amount needed.

M. A. Garvin drew the attention of council to the waterway along the side of Chambersburg pike, that there are overflows which wash away the old tan walk and council was asked to extend drainage pipe from railroad up along Buford avenue, that there were drainage pipes stored up on Franklin street that would answer purpose. Council said matter would be considered later in evening but when adjournment came no action had been taken.

C. S. Duncan, Esq., as representing the W. M. R. R., presented an agreement between the railroad, the borough and sewer contractors about the placing of the sewer under the railroad tracks at the four places where it would be necessary. He stated that agreement simply defined the responsibilities of all parties. The 7th and 8th clauses were objectionable to the councilmen, specially the former, and motion carried to lay matter on table for future consideration. Then Mr.

The Finance Committee reported six bids for the $30,000 sewer bonds. Hayden, Miller & Co. of Cleveland, offering the substantial premium of $554.40. Dick & Robinson of New York, $751.30. F. L. Fuller & Co., Cleveland, $601. Lamprecht Brothers & Co. of Cleveland $402.30. Municipal and Corporation Security Co. of Pittsburgh $400. E. J. Kitzmiller of Shippenburg $61. Prof. John A. Himes of this place made a bid for 7 bonds. A motion carried that the issue be awarded to Hayden, Miller & Co. at their bid. The same parties also offer to furnish the lithographed bonds.

Attention was called to the water at alley along Senator Martin's property, that he had improved his property so as to be one of the finest in town and deserved consideration. Matter was placed in hands of Highway Committee with power to act.

Councilman Hammond asked to have it explained what was done with issue of bonds of $2,000 to take up outstanding bonds and statement was made that the stable charity fund had been invested in same, that there would be no loss of interest on fund, and hereafter four per cent. instead of three per cent., that money had been used, but it was the purpose when sewer bonds had all been sold to put aside $2,000 to take up old outstanding bonds.

As it was getting late the presentation of an ordinance to regulate use of sewer was postponed to the next meeting.

Contractors Feir & O'Rourke reported work done up to present time being worth $2155.19, and that 249 cubic yards of rock had been so far encountered. Engineer McIntosh explained that only rock that he so called was paid for, that contractors had been blasting shale as cheaper way to get it out which had not been called rock by him. So far the extras amounted to $9.54 and Sewer Committee said they had made changes by which town was saved more than enough to pay for rock so far excavated.

FIFTY CENTS

In some conditions the gain from the use of Scott's Emulsion is very rapid. For this reason we put up a fifty-cent size, which is enough for an ordinary cough or cold or useful as a trial for babies and children. In other conditions the gain is slower—health cannot be built up in a day. In such cases Scott's Emulsion must be taken as nourishment; a food rather than a medicine. It's a food for tired and weak digestions.

As there was not enough money in sight to pay bills, borough taxes coming in end of this month and proceeds of sewer bonds not coming in for some weeks, a motion prevailed that Finance Committee borrow $2500 for 30 days, $2000 to be set aside for sewer purposes and balance for general purposes.

Council adjourned until Tuesday evening, September 19.

District S. S. Convention.

The S. S. convention of the first district of Adams county convened in the Great Conewago Presbyterian church, Hunterstown, Friday afternoon, Sept. 1, the Pres., Harry S. Monfort, presiding. The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. Seth Russell Downie.

The Pres. then appointed the following committees: Nominating, J. M. Weaver, Mrs. Waltman and Mr. Berwager. Resolutions, H. T. Weaver, Miss Pauline Wisotzky and Miss Louise Stahl.

H. T. Weaver then presented a constitution which was adopted by the convention.

The first topic for the afternoon was "Home Department Work." Rev. H. W. Bender of New Chester, gave a very interesting address on this topic, relating his own personal experience in the work and telling how helpful he had found the Home Department in his own congregation. A conference then followed in which a number took part.

Mr. Berwager then led a conference on "The Work of the Cradle Roll." The importance of interesting children at a very early age, in the S. S. was strongly emphasized.

The afternoon session closed with music and the benediction.

Convention convened at 7:30 p. m. Song service conducted by Mr. Berwager. The Pres. then called for reports from the committees. The Nominating Committee reported as follows: For Pres., H. S. Monfort; V. Pres., H. T. Weaver; Sec., Miss Carrie Musselman; Treas., J. M. Weaver; Supt. of Home Department Work, Mrs. H. W. Bender; Supt. Normal Class Work, Miss Annie Howard; Supt. of Primary and Cradle Roll Work, Mrs. L. L. Sieber. The report was accepted and the officers elected.

The committee on resolutions not having finished their work, the chairman said, they would report through the Co. papers.

Excellent addresses were then made by the following ministers; Rev. Hesson "How to bring the church into the S. S.,"

Rev. Jacob Clutz, "How to Keep the Boys in the S. S."

Rev. S. L. Rice, "The Parents Responsibility to the S. S."

Miss Ruth Clutz of Gettysburg sang several solos which added very much to the enjoyment of the evening.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Bell of Ravenswood, W. Va., says: "I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."

THREE YOUNG BOYS CHARGED WITH SERIOUS CRIMES

Littlestown Expects Electric Light From York Haven—A Race Track Near York Springs.

As the culmination of playing the desperado along time novel lines one Conowago township boy is in Stony Conowago on High street, Gettysburg, a boarder of Sheriff Basehoar, charged with house breaking and larceny. The story is a sad one of youthful wrong doing.

The house of Andrew Wildasin was ransacked in latter part of August, trunks were opened, contents of bureau drawers were scattered over floor and 37 working stamps issued by the Pollock Packing Co. and 11 cents in coin were the missing articles.

Suspicion finally fell on three young boys. Reuben Small aged 14 years, Fritz Small aged 17 years and Thomas Small aged 17 years. They belonged to three different families. It is alleged that the boys asked a neighbor the whereabouts of the Wildasin family, assuring themselves the house was vacant. From evidence submitted before Justice Lilly at the hearing last week Reuben the youngest and accredited ring leader entered house while the other two kept watch on the outside. Reuben was committed to jail for trial but he had not yet lost the dime novel flavor of acting. When constable Daugherty started to train with him and was in act of purchasing ticket the boy made a dash for liberty but was captured after a spirited run. It is said family restraint has failed to make any impression on the boys.

Sheriff Basehoar has another boarder in one Edward Smith, colored, charged with assault and battery by Chas. Gorman of Hotel Washington, this place, who says Smith threw a stone on a recent night which struck him on the head inflicting a severe scalp wound. It is said the assault was unprovoked.

Twenty men started last week to erect poles for electric light line from Hanover to Littlestown and it is expected to have line finished in two weeks. Littlestown will then be furnished electric light from the Hanover Light, Heat and Power Co. plant. Eventually it is proposed to receive power from the York Haven plant.

Citizens of York Springs and vicinity have in recent years been buying good horse flesh and have had longings for a track upon which to test the speed of their horses. This desire will be fulfilled at an early date as a driving organization has been effected and a race track is being built on farm of Charles J. Griest near York Springs. The track will be a third of a mile long. It is expected to have track in condition for races this month and as soon as finished races will be arranged.

Always Gives Satisfaction. What better recommendation can an article have than to say it always gives satisfaction. We asked Mrs. C. D. Root of East Concord, Vt., to write us what she thought of Down's Elixir, and she wrote:

"Down's Elixir is good and always gives satisfaction." What more could be said. Everybody knows that Down's Elixir is a cough remedy, and is recommended for croup, whooping-cough and all lung troubles. Down's Elixir has cured consumption and will do it again. Sold everywhere. L. M. Buehler.

GEO. HELTZEL, son of Lucian Helzel, of Mt. Pleasant township, cut his right foot last week by a mis-stroke of pick.

"A cold or cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throat instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For the want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. It meets and corrects the above conditions, by acting as a pleasant cathartic on the bowels—expels all colds from the system and cures all coughs, croup, whooping-cough, lagrippe, bronchitis, etc. Sold by L. M. Buehler.

A son of Franklin Kime, of Biglerville, has been suffering with lock-jaw supposed to have been caused by sting of a fly.

No need to fear sudden attacks of cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhoea, summer complaint of any sort if you have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in the medicine chest.

EXTENSIVE improvements have been made to Parochial school building in New Oxford. Walls and framework were frescoed and repainted, building is being fitted up to be heated by steam and new desks and furniture are in place.

It is easy to relieve a cough or cure a cold after a copious evacuation of the bowels. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. It acts on the bowels, expels all cold from the system, and cures coughs by removing the cause. This remedy clears the phlegm and strengthens the mucous membranes of the throat, chest, lungs and bronchial tubes. The honey bee and the red clover blossom is on every bottle of Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar, the Original Laxative Cough Syrup. Sold by L. M. Buehler.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN SPANGLER, of Mt. Pleasant township, were grieved last week by a swing in the cellar creaking containing their canned fruit and losing two dozen jars of same.

J. O. SWARTZ, of New Oxford, dug up in his truck patch a large copper penny of year 1817.

RHEUMATISM CURED IN 24 HOURS.—"T. J. Blackmore, of Haller & Blackmore, Pittsburg, Pa., says: 'A short time since I procured a bottle of Mystic Cure. It got me out of the house in 24 hours. I took to my bed with Rheumatism nine months ago and the Mystic Cure is the only medicine that did me any good. I had five of the best physicians in the city, but I received very little relief from them. I know the Mystic Cure to be what it is represented and take pleasure in recommending it to other poor sufferers.' Sold by Peoples Drug Store.

JAMES STONESTER, of Brushy, raised 10 potatoes on 1 stalk weighing 6 pounds.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM CURED IN 3 DAYS.—Morton L. Hill, of Lebanon, Ind., says: "My wife had inflammatory rheumatism in every muscle and joint; her suffering was terrible and her body and face were swollen almost beyond recognition; had been in bed for six weeks and had eight physicians, but received no benefit until she tried the Mystic Cure for Rheumatism. A son of W. H. Peters, near Heidlersburg, recently gave birth to a litter of 16 pigs.

Do It Today.—The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til to-morrow what you can do today," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it today." That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day, and let that remedy be Dr. Boscche's German Syrup, which has been in use for over 35 years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure, as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

THE KEYSTONE E. L. H. & P. CO.

Have inaugurated their day service. Turn your electric light switch and you will find the fluid there. When one considers that the family sewing machine may be run electrically at less cost than two ordinary 16 C. P. lamps, one wonders why any woman will continue to wear away her health and strength on foot power machines. Ask your doctor and then ask yourself. The hourly cost of an electric fan is about the same as that of an incandescent lamp—insignificant. The electric tea kettle, chafing dishes and other electrically heated utensils do not cost extravagantly, but are well within the reach of any one connected to the lighting circuit.

Owners of stores, restaurants, hotels and barber shops all consider fan motors absolutely necessary not only to win but to retain trade. In the same way heating appliances such as flat irons, disc stoves, water heaters, curling irons, etc., have come into general use in the business world because they offer better means.

Belting and shafting are always wasting power. Not so with the direct connected motor.

The electric sign may be appropriately described as "current advertising." It is the modern "sign of prosperity."

There is no better advertisement than a well lighted store. Nernst lamps will do it, the nearest light to sunlight, and as cheap as any other illuminant.

Drop us a postal and we will gladly call and explain.
